

I strongly believe that no one company should be allowed to monopolize VRS services. It is not fair. I should have the right to call who I want and when. I believe that's inherent of the basic rule of thumb...freedom of choice.